

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 28, 2005

Contact: Brian Lassiter, Minnesota Council for Quality 612-868-3519

MINNESOTA COUNCIL FOR QUALITY ELECTS SARAH FIELD TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Minnesota Council for Quality, Minnetonka, is pleased to announce the election of Sarah Field to its Board of Directors. Ms. Field is currently the Executive Director of Rochester Area Math Science Partnership (RAMSP), a non-profit that focuses on promoting high student achievement and on providing leadership and support for continuous improvement and promoting collaboration among K-12 districts in southeast Minnesota.

“I am very excited to welcome Sarah to our Board,” says Brian Lassiter, president of the Minnesota Council for Quality. “Sarah has a passion for organizational excellence and is dedicated to improving the quality of K-12 schools in the Rochester area. She also brings significant non-profit experience to our Board, a perspective we hope to increase.”

Ms. Field is a graduate of the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota. She has a diverse background with experience in many industries, including information technology, manufacturing, non-profit, and education. Prior to her work with RAMSP, she held positions with the following organizations: IBM (software engineer), Worksystems, Inc (Special Projects Coordinator), and the United Way of Olmsted County. Sarah also served for one year as an AmeriCorp VISTA volunteer with the “Teaming for Technology” program.

Currently Sarah serves on the Rochester Area Quality Council (RAQC) Board, a partner of the Council, and will serve as the current ex Officio Board member from RAQC.

“Our partnership with the Rochester Area Quality Council continues to strengthen,” says Craig Robinson, Chair of the Council’s Board and Marketing Consultant with Kopp Financial Advisors. “Sarah will help us better understand the needs of our members and stakeholders from southeast Minnesota.”

Sarah also serves on the Board of Evaluators for the Council’s Minnesota Quality Award. She also volunteers on several community projects. Sarah currently lives in Rochester with her husband David and children Isabel & Olivia.

About the Minnesota Council for Quality

Founded in 1987, the Minnesota Council for Quality is a non-profit that helps organizations improve performance and competitiveness. The Council’s primary service is a comprehensive organizational assessment that identifies strengths and improvement opportunities and serves as the foundation for the Minnesota Quality Award. In addition, the Council brokers improvement-related resources, information, knowledge, and best practices within and between Minnesota organizations. For more information, please visit our website at www.councilforquality.org.

###