MINNESOTA COUNCIL FOR QUALITY RECOGNIZES NEW MEMBERS

The Minnesota Council for Quality recognizes the following new and renewed organization members for the period of January-May 2002:

Alexandria Extrusion Company, Alexandria
Dunwoody Institute, Minneapolis
Emerald Quality Services, Minneapolis
Jean Bronk, Faribault
Johnson Controls, Minneapolis
Hennepin County Economic Assistance and IT, Minneapolis
Minnesota Association of Alternative Programs (MAAP), St. Paul
Tappe Construction, Eagan
University of Minnesota-Duluth, ASSL, Duluth

Membership in the Council not only supports quality and performance excellence in the state of Minnesota, but also entitles member organizations to discounts for Council services as well as discounts to Council partner services. Membership is non-voting, is based on organization size, and is renewable annually.

About the Minnesota Council for Quality

Founded in 1987, the Minnesota Council for Quality is a non-profit with a dual mission of helping organizations improve their performance and competitiveness as well as to recognize performance excellence throughout the state. Along with the Minnesota Quality Award, the Council offers other services that advance improvement within and between Minnesota organizations.
